Stockholm, January 5, O. S.

IT is talked at Court, that Prince Maximilian of Hesse's Eldest Daughter will come here next Spring, to be educated by the Queen of Sweden; and that Prince William of Hesse will take a Turn hither also about that Time. Count Stromberg, Chamberlain, was married last Night at Court to Mademoiselle Lewenhaupt, Maid of Honour to the Queen; in whose Room Mademoiselle Taube, the Admiral's Daughter, was received on New-Year's-Day.

Hambourg, Jan. 25, N. S. The House of Holstein has had a great Loss by the Demise of the Princess Amalia, who died last Sunday at Quedlinburg of the Small Pox, after nine Days Sickness. The youngest Prince George of Holstein Eutin has likewise that Disease, but the Physicians say he is out of Danger.

St. James's, January 12.

This Day His Majesty was pleased to fill up Four of the vacant Stalls at Westminster, of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, by conferring the Honour of Knighthood of that Order on the Lord Marquess of Carnarvon, Lord Viscount Bareman, Sir George Downing Baronet, and Charles Gunter Nicol, Esq;. The Ceremony was performed by His Majesty in His Closet; his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, his Royal Highness the Duke, the Grand Master, with several of the Great Officers of the Court attending.

The Sovereign having put on the Ribbon, with the Badge of the Order hanging to it, Bath King of Arms, carrying on a Cushion the Ribbon with the Badge of the Order hanging to it, introduced the Marquess of Carnarvon, who kneeling before the Sovereign, was Knighted with the Sword of State. Then the Grand Master having received the Ribbon with the Badge of the Order from Bath King of Arms, presented the same to the Sovereign, who put the Ribbon over the Marquess of Carnarvon's Shoulder, he still kneeling, and then he had the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand: Which done, he rose up and withdrew. Then the Lord Viscount Bateman was introduced and invested with the same Ceremonies. Then Sir George Downing Baronet, was introduced and invested with the same Ceremonies. And then Charles Gunter Nicol, Esq; was introduced and invested with the same Ceremonies.

A General Quarterly-Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance Office, will be held at their House in Hatton Garden, on Tuesday the First Day of February next, at Ten in the Forenoon; at which Time the new proposed By-Laws will be laid before the Court for Approbation.
